KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

Encounters with ICE · at home, at work, or in public

YOUR RIGHTS · EVERYWHERE

· You have the right to remain silent. You do not have to answer questions about your immigration status, where you were born, or how you entered the United States.

· You have the right to speak with a lawyer before answering any questions.

· Do not sign anything you do not understand or have not reviewed with a lawyer · signing could give up your right to see a judge.

· Say, calmly: ·I wish to remain silent. I want to speak with a lawyer.·

IF ICE STOPS YOU IN PUBLIC

· Stay calm. Do not run.

· Ask: ·Am I free to go?· If the officer says yes, you may calmly walk away.

· You do not have to consent to a search. Say: ·I do not consent to a search.·

· Never present false documents, and never claim to be a U.S. citizen if you are not.

IF ICE COMES TO YOUR HOME

· You do not have to open the door. Talk through the closed door.

· Officers may enter only with your permission or a judicial warrant · a warrant issued by a court and signed by a judge.

· An ICE administrative warrant (Form I-200 or I-205) is signed by an ICE officer, not a judge. It does NOT authorize entry into your home without your permission.

· Ask officers to slide any warrant under the door and check who signed it and the name and address it lists.

· Say: ·I do not consent to your entry into my home.· If officers enter anyway, do not resist · say clearly that you do not consent, remain silent, and contact a lawyer as soon as possible.

IF ICE COMES TO YOUR WORKPLACE

· Stay calm and do not run. Running can be used against you.

· You have the right to remain silent. Ask if you are free to leave.

· Do not sign anything. Ask to speak with a lawyer.

IF YOU ARE ARRESTED OR DETAINED

· You have the right to make a phone call · to a family member, a trusted person, or a lawyer.

· Tell officers about medical needs or medication, and about children or family who depend on you.

· Note your A-Number and share it with your family and lawyer.

· Family can search for you in ICE's Online Detainee Locator System on ICE's website.
